

Fireball Worlds 2016.

Why you must attend, or what you will miss if you don't attend this amazing event.

About Mossel Bay

Mossel Bay is a charming coastal town on the renowned Garden Route in the Western Cape Province of South Africa. A popular coastal holiday destination, Mossel Bay has developed into a town of unhurried hospitality, complementing the natural beauty and rich cultural history of the area. Boasting 300 days of sunshine a year, Mossel Bay is a year round travel destination making it the ideal location for the 2016 Fireball World Championships.

For those of your worried about personal safety this is a safe town where you can walk around the interesting streets in total safety.

For the non sailors in your party there are masses of activities to keep them occupied as this is a holiday town, with museums, beaches, tours and anything you would like to do.

Food and drink of all varieties is close to the yacht club and accommodation. For those thirsty types a pint of beer will set you back 70p at the yacht club and one pound fifty at the five star hotels and upmarket restaurants. Good local wine ranges between two and eight pounds for the highest quality at restaurants and considerably less at the bottle stores.

A meal will range from two pounds for fish and chips at the harbour to 10 pounds in an upmarket restaurant. The yacht club has full catering with prices between 2 and 5 pounds for a meal

The entry fee for the event will include all social events so no extras like those we had to pay in Wales last year.

The containers will be located either in the yacht club or in close proximity to the yacht club.

Sailing Conditions

In December, the summer climate and warm seas create perfect sailing conditions. The prevailing wind at this time is South East, which generally builds towards the afternoon peaking at around 15-18 knots. These conditions are ideal for exciting downwind legs sailing with the swell. The swell is rhythmical and you can expect at least 1.5 metre waves. If the South

Easter doesn't turn up, then the Westerly will probably dominate, which makes for an interesting upwind leg beating with the swell.

The launching facilities from the protected bay in front of the yacht club are superb, making it easy for boats to launch from the slipway or the neighbouring beach. The Yacht Club has successfully hosted numerous big regattas and they are excited to greet the Fireballers in 2016!
